

Schedule

7:30 Coffee and Registration

8:30 Welcome

8:45 to 10:00 Post-Election Landscape

What are the possibilities for progressive action at the local, state and national levels?

- Arturo Carmona, mitú and Bernie Sanders campaign
- Veronica Carrizales, California Calls
- Danny Feingold, Capital & Main
- Rusty Hicks, Los Angeles County Federation of Labor
- Nancy L. Cohen, historian and author of Breakthrough (moderator)

10:15 to 10:25 Supervisor Mark Ridley-Thomas

From Homeless to Home

10:30 to 11:45 Homelessness, Housing, Health & Big Data

What evidence-based actions will improve housing stability, health and well-being for low-income residents?

- Dan Flaming, Economic Roundtable
- Gale Holland, Los Angeles Times
- Chris Ko, United Way
- Joan Ling, UCLA Urban Planning
- Bill Pitkin, Conrad N. Hilton Foundation (moderator)

11:50 to 12:25 Lunch Buffet

12:30 to 1:00 Supervisor Sheila Kuehl: #OperationMonkeyWrench

What can California, local governments, organizations, and individuals do to prevent the erosion of civil rights and advance economic and social justice in the next four years?

1:30 to 2:45 Minimum Wage & the Work-Based Social Safety Net

What initiatives will make it possible for everyone who is willing to work to support themselves through work?

- Patrick Burns, Economic Roundtable
- Julie Su, California Labor Commissioner
- Alberto Retana, Community Coalition
- Roxana Tynan, Los Angeles Alliance for a New Economy (moderator)

3:00 to 4:00 Conclusion and Reception